

HEARST UNDECEIVED

Realizes His Campaign Was Juggled by Grafters.

LOSES CONFIDENCE IN LEADERS

If William S. Jackson Is Elected Attorney General, Hearst, It Is Said, Will Renew Fight for Re-count of Ballots Cast During the Last Mayoralty Campaign in New York.

New York, Nov. 7.—William R. Hearst has had very little to say since his defeat. He showed a cheerful front to callers who went to his home on Lexington avenue to congratulate him "on making a good fight, anyway," and put in several hours reading telegrams to the same effect.

Despite Mr. Hearst's silence, certain things concerning his attitude and his opinion of the election became definitely known. He has refused to follow his leaders' loud cry of "Fraud!" and "Robbery!" and stands on the statement he issued this morning, which conceded defeat and which was virtually a promise to abide by the result.

At 1 o'clock this morning Chairman Johnson left the mournful headquarters at the Glisby House, from which the rift and grafters who had haunted it six weeks had long since fled, and drove to Mr. Hearst's house.

A. M. Lawrence, who runs Hearst's Chicago newspaper, Clarence J. Shearn, Arthur Brisbane, and several other Hearst lieutenants got there about the same time. What took place was not made public, but the result was that Mr. Hearst shut his mouth and there was no more squalling.

May Renew Mayoralty Fight.

It was apparent to-day that Mr. Hearst was intensely interested in the fate of the fusion candidates, who ran for ahead of him and stood a good chance of squeezing through, particularly William S. Jackson, candidate for Attorney General. If Jackson wins out, Mr. Hearst will renew the fight for a recount of the ballots in the mayoralty election through an application to the attorney general for permission to obtain quo warranto proceedings. Mr. Jackson has declared on the stump that Hearst was robbed and put himself on record that he will take up the fight for a recount if elected.

Analyzing the result, it was plain that Mr. Hearst was disappointed somewhat, but on the whole pleased with the showing he had made up-State. The outcome in Greater New York was nothing less than a surprise to him. He made no statement about Tammany and the knife he got from the organization, but it was perfectly plain that Mr. Hearst realized that Tammany had slashed him viciously and thoroughly, and that he believed his defeat was due principally to Tammany and the organization in Kings County.

It was said to-day by persons near the defeated candidate that he was sorry he had to himself be persuaded to accept the Democratic nomination, that he regretted he had not made the race as the independence League candidate alone. The story was repeated to-day that Mr. Hearst was overruled by men who thought they would have a "sure thing" with Hearst as the Democratic candidate. There was another story around the Glisby House that Hearst had become disgusted with the utterly inaccurate reports furnished him concerning the situation here and up-State during the campaign. It was said also that Mr. Hearst has finally tumbled to the realization that place-hunters and grafters made a jumble of his campaign, and seldom had the nerve to go to Hearst with the plain truth about anything.

Mr. Hearst's Callers.

Among Mr. Hearst's callers to-day were several of the candidates elected on the Hearst-Murphy judicial ticket, and two or three of the State ticket who believed they would win out. John Ford went to Mr. Hearst's house early this morning, and after a long talk, and after he had been convinced that he would be elected, called on Mr. Hearst also. Somebody congratulated Chanler.

"Oh, darn all that," said he, "I don't care about myself since W. R. is beaten." Mr. Hearst was obviously amused at the efforts of these callers to conceal a natural exultation over their own success in the face of knowledge of a knock-out blow to himself.

Hearst spent a quiet day to-day. He slept late and kept indoors until evening when he took a drive with Mrs. Hearst. Telegrams arrived at the rate of about one a minute, and he seemed to find amusement in reading them. He laughed and joked with callers, and one time he guessed he would answer anyway. Beneath the quiet amiability which is characteristic of the man there was, however, every indication of deep and bitter disappointment. He evidently believed that he would be elected, and the result was a real shock to him.

Mr. Hearst will remain here for a few days and will then go to his country home in California to rest. He will stay there till Christmas, probably, when he will return for the Congress session. Afterward he will go abroad with Mrs. Hearst.

BUCHTEL CARRIES COLORADO.

Defeats Adams by 17,000—Legislature Overwhelmingly Republican.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 7.—With eight out of the 301 precincts of the city and county of Denver still missing, Buchtel, Republican, for governor, it is estimated, will poll 11,000 votes above Adams, Democrat. In addition to this, Buchtel will come to Denver from the State with at least 6,000 more, making his total plurality over Adams about 17,000.

Buchtel ran far heavier in Denver and Denver County than was expected, and as returns from outlying districts begin to come in his plurality is increasing. The entire State ticket went to victory with Buchtel, and the next legislature will be overwhelmingly Republican.

Robert W. Bouyenga was re-elected to Congress from the First district, while former Lieut. Gov. Warren A. Haggott was chosen from the Second, and George W. Cook, of the G. A. R., was elected Congressman-at-large.

The legislature will elect a successor to Senator Thomas R. Patterson, Democrat.

W. D. Haywood, the Socialist candidate for governor, polled over 15,000 votes. He is now in the Idaho penitentiary charged with complicity in the assassination of ex-Gov. Steunenberg.

WHEN TAYLOR COMES TO THE SENATE.

CULLUM WILL BE RETURNED.

Big Republican Victory in State Insures His Election.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—Illinois Republicans will have a majority of at least 65 in the next legislature, exceeding the most sanguine expectations of the party managers.

The overwhelming Republican victory makes easy sailing for Senator Shelby M. Cullom, who is absolutely certain of reelection when the State lawmakers meet in biennial session in January.

Gov. Deneen will also have full opportunity to put through the reforms he has contemplated for the last two years of his administration.

The legislature's complexion will be as follows: House, Republicans, 88; Democrats, 81; Prohibitionists, 2. Senate, Republicans, 44; Democrats, 7.

The feature of the Illinois election was the startling run made by William P. Allin, Prohibition nominee for State treasurer, who carried Christian, Sangamon, Morgan, Wayne, and Macou counties and piled up a total vote of 125,000, the largest ever cast for a Prohibitionist in Illinois. He drew almost equally from the ranks of the Republican, Democrat, and Prohibitionist, both of whom ran far behind their tickets.

GOVERNOR HOCH RE-ELECTED.

Vote in Kansas Close, with Democrats Still Claiming Victory.

Topeka, Kans., Nov. 7.—Basing results on reports from every county in the State, many of which are unofficial, however, the Republican claim the re-election of Gov. Hoch by nearly 4,000 plurality. The Democratic State committee, on reports from ninety of the 105 counties claim that W. A. Harris has been elected governor by a plurality of nearly 1,000. Reports to some newspapers indicate that the claims made by the Republican State committee are not far from correct, and that Gov. Hoch's re-election is assured.

The entire Republican State ticket pulled through, but by a fairly decreased majority. The Republicans have elected 15 out of 125 assemblymen. The senators hold over.

STUART'S PLURALITY IS 70,000

Reform Element in Philadelphia Keenly Disappointed.

Head of Republican State Ticket Carries Remainder to Victory—No Cry of Fraud.

Philadelphia, Nov. 7.—Complete returns for the State show that Edwin S. Stuart, Republican governor-elect, ran ahead of his ticket and carried the city by a plurality of 32,228, receiving 123,483 votes, while Mayor received 91,255. Allegheny County gave Stuart an estimated plurality of 25,000. Stuart's plurality for the State is figured at 70,000.

Robert S. Murphy, for lieutenant governor; Robert K. Young, for auditor, and Henry Honery, for secretary of internal affairs, were also elected by pluralities slightly under that of Stuart.

The unexpected result of the election in Philadelphia was keenly felt by the reform party. The principal fight in the city was made for the office of district attorney, and it was one of the bitterest in the history of the city. The leaders of the city party, which is elected fusion with the Democrats and Prohibitionists on the local ticket, felt certain that D. Clarence Gibbons, their candidate for district attorney, would win, but the figures show that Samuel P. Rotan, his Republican opponent, carried the city by 12,124. The Republican candidates for city treasurer and register of wills were also elected by about the same plurality.

The most unusual feature of the whole situation is the fact that for the first time in twenty years there has been no cry of fraud from the defeated party. All accept defeat as a token of the will of the people and are satisfied.

Causes for fusion defeat in the State is ascribed to the injection of national issues into the campaign and the potent appeal to partisanship among the voters of Pennsylvania. The defeat of their Philadelphia ticket the fusionists ascribe to the fortuitous circumstances that the election for district attorney occurred at the same time as the Congressional election.

Philadelphia elected the six Republican candidates for Congress by decisive majorities; elected Republicans to fill vacancies in the common council, and endorsed the $12,500 loan to the State Capital by a big majority.

The total vote of the city was indicated by the vote for district attorney, showing the aggregate total to be about 27,612 out of a total registration of 220,000, being a little over 90 per cent of the registered vote.

So far as the victory of Rotan is concerned, the big city majority for Stuart materially brought about his election. However, among the City and Lincoln Party leaders the feeling is held that the Philadelphia Democratic organization had much to do with the defeat of Gibbons by trading many votes.

UNIONISTS SWEEP ISLAND.

No Republicans in Porto Rico House of Delegates.

San Juan, Porto Rico, Nov. 7.—In the election here the Unionist party made a clean sweep of the island. The Republicans will not be represented in the House of Delegates.

The Unionists won in most of the municipal elections, but lost the fight in this city, the Republicans remaining in control.

There were no disturbances anywhere in the island. This was the first election in San Juan's history that passed off without any untoward incident, and Gov. Winthrop is heartily congratulated upon this result.

Williams and Vardaman as Rivals.

Jackson, Miss., Nov. 7.—With practically no opposition, the Democrats elected their eight Representatives to Congress. The vote was light and will not exceed 20,000. The fight between Congressman John Sharp Williams and Gov. James K. Vardaman, to succeed United States Senator Money, will come up in the primary elections next August.

"Strange Gods" Worry Shaw.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—The result of the election is joyous, but it is painful to see our party lines disrupted in certain sections by wandering off after strange gods," was the resume given by Leslie M. Shaw, Secretary of the Treasury, at the Auditorium Hotel to-day.

FAT JOBS IN CHICAGO

Millions in Patronage Fall to the Republicans.

DUNNE HAS A FEW CRUMBS

New Municipal Courts and County Board Are Practically Without Any Civil Service Rules, and Political Friends Will Be Cared For—Republicans Confident of Mayoralty.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—The result of yesterday's election has thrown into Republican hands such a volume of patronage in Chicago and Cook County as it has never had at its disposal before. The only remnant remaining to the Democrats is what pertains directly to the mayoralty, held by Edward P. Dunne.

In the formation of new municipal courts there will be 200 positions for civil service rules, and the fortunate candidates say frankly that they will take care of their political friends first.

Shane-up is predicted. The Republicans retain control of the county and probate courts, and a shake-up is scheduled among the clerks in these branches such as follows almost every election. With the loss of the Circuit Court clerk's office by the Democrats, still more vacancies will be made for Republican workers.

The county board, also now completely Republican, controls patronage rated as one of the most valuable political assets in the State.

With the smoke of battle still hanging over the city, both Democratic and Republican leaders have commenced preparations for the mayoralty fight next spring.

Expect Victory in Spring.

The Republicans think yesterday's result a sure sign of coming victory in the city election, and a rush to get in line for nomination is expected almost immediately.

The Democrats argue that their defeat signifies little, so far as the mayoralty fight is concerned. It is admitted that the party is somewhat split by factional quarrels, but they assert all differences will be forgotten by spring.

"We may as well admit that our ticket was a little weak," says Mayor Dunne, "but our campaign could have been improved on, too."

WANTS SOUTHERNER TO LEAD

Chairman Griggs Favors John Sharp Williams for President.

Declares Democrats as Now Organized Cannot Get the Offices and Demands a Change.

"I am in favor of nominating John Sharp Williams for President, regardless of the suggestion that a Southerner cannot be elected," said Chairman Griggs, of the Democratic Congressional Committee, last evening.

"It is evident that, although Democratic principles are accepted and put in force by a Republican administration, the Democratic party as now organized cannot get the offices."

The headquarters of the Democratic Congressional Committee was closed last night. No statement was given out regarding Democratic gains in the next House. Chairman Griggs said the results spoke for themselves, and he had decided to make no formal statement of the result.

"After this," said Mr. Griggs, "I am a Democrat with a prefix—a Southern Democrat—one who will advocate the nomination of a candidate for the Presidency that pleases the Southern Democrats. If the North intends continuing to punish us for the sins of our fathers I am in favor of accepting the verdict now, and act accordingly."

SENATOR GAMBLE MAY LOSE.

South Dakota Democrats Claim Legislature by Narrow Vote.

Pierre, S. Dak., Nov. 7.—By making surprising gains in the next legislature, the Democrats of South Dakota are claiming they will dictate a successor to United States Senator Gamble, Republican.

In 47 out of 50 counties the Democrats have 23, the St. Paul Republican Party and the Insurgent Republicans, who elected the State ticket, 72. It will take 77 to name a Senator, and the remaining 8 counties are in doubt.

Since Senator Gamble's bitter fight against his colleague, who endeavored to prevent the State convention endorsing him for re-election, Senator Klittridge has kept the fight up, appealing to the Democrats for aid. The election of 21 Democrats to the legislature occurred in 11 counties, in 12 of which the Republicans carried the balance of the ticket.

PRESIDENT GRATIFIED

Wires His Congratulations to Hughes and Cannon.

HE RECEIVES MANY CALLERS

Cabinet Members and Other Officials Assure Him He Was Issue in the Campaign—They Believe Now He Was Very Wise in Sending Secretary of State Root to Utica.

Every caller at the White House yesterday and nearly every message received by the President congratulated him on a personal victory.

"Roosevelt was the issue," they said, and the result, it was declared, showed the President's continued hold upon the affections of his countrymen.

The President expressed gratifications over the result in New York. The fact that the result was closer than many Republicans had been willing to concede showed that the President understood the conditions when he put forth extraordinary efforts to elect Mr. Hughes.

President Roosevelt wired his congratulations to Charles E. Hughes, governor-elect of New York. The message was not made public, but the fact that congratulations had been sent was stated at the White House. He also wired Speaker Cannon his congratulations. The President received telegrams from leading Republicans throughout the country announcing Republican successes. Senator Allice told of Republican success in Delaware, Senator Carter apprised the President that the Republicans had won in Montana, insuring a Republican successor to Senator W. A. Clark; Senator Penrose notified the President of a Republican organization victory in Pennsylvania, Senator Beveridge telegraphed that Republicans had won in Indiana.

Believe Hearst Eliminated. Politicians who visited the President affect to see in the result in New York the elimination of Hearst as the possible Democratic Presidential nominee in 1908, and the certain reappointment of W. J. Bryan. There would be a renewal of the regular contest, it was said, that President Roosevelt consent to lead his party again. Among the government officials and citizens who flocked to the White House to congratulate the Executive, the usual list was: Secretaries Root and Hitchcock, and Attorney General Moody, Justice Brewer, Frank H. Waskiey, Delegate from Alaska, and A. L. C. Atkinson, acting governor of Hawaii.

Secretary Root Gratified.

Secretary Root, when asked for an expression of opinion on the election, said: "I am much gratified over the election of Mr. Hughes, and of course, I am gratified over the election of a Republican Congress."

Attorney General Moody preferred not to discuss the elections for publication, but to friends he privately expressed himself as highly gratified over results, particularly in Massachusetts and New York.

Other Cabinet Opinions.

Secretary Hitchcock, of the Interior Department, said: "The result is very gratifying indeed. I expect at the White House this morning to congratulate the President upon the election, because the outcome is a personal triumph for him."

Attorney General Moody said: "The election seems to have carried out almost all of our predictions. I am particularly pleased over the result in New York and Pennsylvania. The Keystone State's friends seem to have overcome all the difficulties that threatened them. The President is to be congratulated upon the way the people endorsed his policies."

Labor Supported President.

Frank P. Sargent, Commissioner General of Immigration, in an interview yesterday, declares that the general result of the election is a vindication of the administration.

"Labor knew," says Mr. Sargent, "former head of the Brotherhood of Railroad Firemen, that the President was giving him the House of Representatives in keeping with the policies of his administration would be to desert organized labor's best friend. Many Congressmen, considered individually, would have been defeated, but when considered in connection with the administration, they were spared."

Commissioner Sargent thought that there was sufficient in the last Congressional election to sound a warning to many Congressmen who would undoubtedly next session give ear to legislation in the interest of labor.

"Three Cheers for Uncle Joe."

President Roosevelt telegraphed Speaker Cannon: "Three cheers for 'Uncle Joe' and the people who had the good sense to elect him."

READY FOR PANAMA JOURNEY.

President and Mrs. Roosevelt Start on the Mayflower to-day.

The President has made his plans to go aboard the yacht Mayflower at the Washington Navy Yard wharf at 4 o'clock this afternoon on the voyage to Panama. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt, Surgeon Gen. Riker, and M. C. Latta, Assistant Secretary to the President.

A transfer will be made from the Mayflower to the war ship Louisiana at Wolf Trap Light, in the Chesapeake Bay. The Mayflower is at the navy yard, and the battle ship Louisiana, upon which he will make the voyage, and the cruisers Tennessee and Washington, which are to act as convoys, are awaiting at Hampton Roads. The Louisiana is the newest and largest available battle ship in the United States navy.

In order that the Mayflower may get well clear of the Washington and Alexandria channels before dark, the President will probably leave the White House this afternoon about 5 o'clock to board her. The three big vessels will be ordered to meet the Mayflower at Piney Point, near the entrance of the Potomac, at about 10 o'clock to-night, and the President will immediately transfer to the Louisiana and sleep aboard her while she passes the Cape on her Southern voyage.

This plan has been decided upon for the reason that the Mayflower could not reach Hampton Roads before 5 or 6 o'clock Friday morning, too early for the President's transfer with comfort.

Admiral "Fighting Bob" Evans will send daily bulletins to Secretary Loeb, by wireless telegraph, which will keep the world informed of the President's health and activities. The President will receive no visitors to-day, as he wishes to clear his desk of all routine matters before leaving for Panama.

The President and party hope to arrive in Washington on their return trip about November 27.

GILLETTE PROBABLY WINS.

Related Returns Show California Republican by 8,000.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 7.—While returns from the interior of the southern precincts of the State are still dilatory, the indications are that Gillette, Republican candidate for governor, has carried the State by about 8,000. The Democrats still claim that Bell is elected, but quote no figures. It is generally conceded, however, that but for the intervention of Langdon, Hearst's Independence League candidate, Bell would have won, on account of the anti-resentment which prevails throughout the State.

Republican leaders claim the election of eight Congressmen, but considerable doubt exists as to whether McKinley, Republican, or Beard, Democrat, has won out in the Second district.

REPUBLICANS GAIN.

Outnumber Democrats in Delaware Legislature 2½ to 1.

Dover, Del., Nov. 7.—The Republicans have not only elected the State ticket from top to bottom, but have also elected more members in the legislature than was expected. Thirty-seven of the fifty-two members of the legislature, which will begin its sittings here the 1st of January, will elect a United States Senator for the full term of six years, are Republicans. This result was due to harmony in the Republican ranks and the banishment of Addicks, who was not registered and did not participate in the election.

Every legislative district in Kent and Sussex counties has elected a Republican, except in four instances, where Democrats got in with the aid of the Prohibitionists by making pledges to support local option for those counties.

MAGDOON INCREASES GUARD.

Cuban Rurales Force to Be Augmented by Six Hundred Men.

Havana, Nov. 7.—Gov. Magdon to-day made another increase in the rural guard. He ordered the enlistment of six additional companies of 100 men each, bringing the total strength of the guard in the island to 5,600 men.

Maj. Slocum has been entrusted with carrying out the augmentation, which will have the result of doubling the number of Rurales over what it was at the opening of the late revolution.

RESCUES TWENTY GIRLS.

Terrified Store Employees Taken Out of Burning Building.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 7.—Twenty terrified girl employees of Andrew Dobbie, dry goods merchant, were rescued by firemen to-day when fire broke out in the third story of the store. A few of the girls were slightly injured. The fire loss is about $5,000.

MORMONS VOTED FOR G. O. P.

Democratic Candidate May Contest Case in Congress.

President Smith Instructed Followers to Stand by Administration, and the Advice Was Followed.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Salt Lake, Utah, Nov. 7.—Another contest in Congress, based on the use of Mormon Church influence in politics, will probably be filed, this time in behalf of Orlando W. Povey, Democratic candidate, who was defeated yesterday by Joseph Howell, Republican. A meeting of leading Democrats will be held in a few days to decide the question.

Several thousand of Mormon Democrats voted the Republican ticket, following the instructions of President Joseph F. Smith, which were taken by good church members as a command from God. An example of the effect of these instructions on church members is shown in the speech made at a Mormon religious meeting held shortly before election by Mrs. Sarah D. Woodruff, one of the plural widows of Wilford Woodruff, deceased, president of the church. She said:

"Joseph F. Smith, prophet, seer, and revelator, has said that we should vote the Republican ticket this year. That is the will of the Lord. It is the duty of every good Latter Day Saint to vote the Republican ticket this year."

In case of a contest many facts like this will be introduced to show that there is an attempt at union of church and State in Utah, in express violation of the State constitution.

Gentle Republicans believe that President Roosevelt, who has appeared throughout as an ally of Smoot and the Mormon Church, does not understand the issue here, but has been misled by Jacob A. Rife and John S. Clarkson, of Iowa. Mr. Rife came to Utah as a lecturer. Clarkson came as a representative of Chairman George B. Cortelyou, of the Republican National Committee to report on the Utah situation. It may not be known to the President that Clarkson was formerly attorney for the church.

Herald Want Ads will be received at Campbell's Pharmacy, 17th and Park road, and promptly forwarded to the main office.

Postponement Result of Further Negotiations Now Pending.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—The threatened general strike of switchmen scheduled to take place on all the twenty-three roads entering Chicago has been called off pending further negotiations between the officers of the unions and managers of the roads.

Another conference took place to-day between committees of the men and the road officials, at which it was decided that action on the part of the switchmen would be postponed. At the conclusion of the meeting men were dispatched to the different yards with orders to keep the switchmen at work.

DYNAMITE EXPLOSION FATAL.

Three Dead and Twelve Injured by Premature Blast in Quebec.

Ottawa, Ontario, Nov. 7.—Meager details have reached here of a terrific dynamite explosion at LaTouche, Quebec, as the result of which three men were instantly killed, one was badly injured, and eleven others were more or less hurt.

The victims were employed on the railway construction works there. It is said a premature explosion was the cause of the accident.
